GAME RULES

- The game will consist of four 8-minute quarters.
- A 1-minute break is allowed between quarters.
- Each player must play at least two quarters per game, unless a team has more than 10 players.
- Each player must sit out one quarter per game, unless a team has less than seven players.
- One parent from each team will need to sit at the table to track substitutions and fouls.
- All games should start within 5-minutes after the hour and must end prior to or on the hour.
- The game ends when time expires.
  - a. There will be no overtime.
- A game will be considered a forfeit if one or both teams are not present by 5-minutes after the game is scheduled to begin.
- The referee will keep the official time.
- The clock will run at all times, except for official's timeout and freethrows.
- Halftime will be 3-minutes.
- Each team will be allowed three timeouts per game.
- Goals will be 8-feet.
- Teams are required to play man-to-man defense.
  - a. It is illegal for the offense to run a clear out so that a one-on-one or isolation play is set up for one player to score.
  - b. First offense: Warning and the other team receives the ball out of bounds.
  - c. Second offense: Technical foul.
- No pressing will be allowed. The defensive team must allow the ball handler to cross half-court.

START OF GAME & JUMP BALLS CONT.

- The opening tip will be the only jump ball during any game.
- Possession on any jump ball will alternate from one team to another.
- Scorekeepers will be responsible for telling the referees which team receives the ball.
  - a. The recommended system is to use the initial of the team who had the last possession.
  - b. Example: If one team is red and the other team is blue, and the red team receives the tip off, mark “R” down at the top of the scoresheet. The blue “B” team will receive the next jump ball
    - i. Do not write an initial down until after the team has thrown in the ball.

FOULS

- A player should raise their hand after committing a foul and turn their back to the scorekeeper’s table for number identification.
- Five personal fouls on a player, per game, will result in disqualification of that player for the rest of the game.
- A technical foul against a player will also be considered a personal foul.
- Technical fouls against a non-player will result in the opposing team receiving two shots and the ball out of bounds.
  - a. Two non-player technical fouls will result in the coach and/or parent leaving the game and they will be suspended for the next two games.
  - b. When an assistant coach receives a technical foul, they must leave the bench.
  - c. The technical will be marked against the head coach.
- Two technical fouls on a player will result in them being ejected from the game and may lead to further disciplinary action from Hereford Sports & Wellness officials.
- Technical fouls will be called if coaches, assistant coaches, or parents are on the court while play is going on.
